

ENGADIN ART TALKS

E.A.T. Engadin Art Talks
Press Release July 2023

Uster, July 1 2023

E.A.T. Engadin Art Talks x Centre Georges Pompidou Paris

Invited by the Centre Georges Pompidou, E.A.T. is pleased to host its satellite event in Paris, taking place on 17 October 2023 from 2 pm to 6 pm at the Salon du Musée, followed by drinks.

After the resounding success of our annual forum in Zuoz, Switzerland, with this year's inspiring theme of "Hoffnung? Hoffnung!", we cordially invite you to join us at E.A.T. x Centre Georges Pompidou Paris, where engaging discussions and captivating talks await you.

Being a multidisciplinary platform for private and professional individuals, the mission of E.A.T. is to bring together renowned thinkers from the creative and scientific disciplines to share their ideas and expertise while posing challenging new questions. The speakers featured in the E.A.T. satellite event have been carefully selected by our esteemed curatorial team, including luminaries such as Hélène Cixous (writer), Théo Casciani, (writer) Simone Fattal (artist), Trajal Harrell (Choreographer) Thomas Hirschhorn (Artist) Anna-Alix Koffi, (Publisher) and Stéphanie Bru & Alexandre Theriot (Architects).

Team of Curators who will host the talks at E.A.T. x Centre Georges Pompidou Paris

Hans Ulrich Obrist (Artistic Director, Serpentine Galleries, London)

Daniel Baumann (Director, Kunsthalle Zürich)

Bice Curiger (Artistic Director Fondation Vincent Van Gogh Arles)

Philip Ursprung (Professor for the History of Art and Architecture and Dean of the Department of Architecture of ETH Zurich)

About E.A.T. / Engadin Art Talks Foundation

E.A.T. Engadin Art Talks is a Forum of art, architecture, design, literature, and innovation that regularly takes place in Zuoz in the Swiss Engadin valley. With a year-round public programme, E.A.T aims to connect the arts with its neighbouring disciplines through insightful presentations, panel discussions, and participatory happenings that respond to urgent themes of our world. E.A.T.'s intention is to find novel perspectives on relevant topics that define our present and shape our future.

Since its foundation, E.A.T. has featured more than 330 international speakers and contributors. In addition to the annual Forum in Zuoz, E.A.T. presents a nomadic series of satellite talks and collaborations with international institutions throughout the year in some of Europe's cultural capitals to pursue its mission abroad.
